Alongside the above learning, children in the Early Years will be continually learning through their play. Exploring, investigating, noticing patterns. They will use their imagination in role play, crafts, small world, playdough and sand. They will play and learn indoors and outdoors and will experience outdoor adventures during Forest School learning with Mrs Marshall.

The children will be learning to be part of a group, to share, take turns, listen and both ask and answer questions. They will make friends with others, learn to become more independent and resilient and will learn to take care of themselves and their belongings.
